RHYTHM IN MONOLOGUE VIDEO BY CHARLIE CHAPLIN

Gita Amanda¹, Rosi Oktapiani
¹ IKIP Siliwangi
² IKIP Siliwangi
¹ gitaamanda77@gmail.com, ² rosicimindi@gmail.com

Abstract
The aim of this article is to know about the rhythm of the monologue video by the dialogue of Charlie Chaplin. Rhythm is a characteristic sound that have a strong beat and a weak beat, the writers will try to proof whether it can imitated well or can not imitated well by some of foreign learners. The writers will make a transcript of a dialogue in the last part of the movie The Great Dictator, and as a foreign learner, the writers will try to imitated Charlie Chaplin by watching and listening the character sound that Charlie Chaplin has. The last, the writers will discus the result to find where is the beat that hard to imitated or which the dialogue that hard or easy to imitated. The method of this article is using a qualitative method because this article is about non-numerical language and also focus on analyzing the data.

Keywords: Rhythm, Charlie Chaplin, Monologue, The Great Dictator

INTRODUCTION
Rhythm is a part of phonology, and phonology is a part of linguistic which talk about the sounds of the language that we produce by oral. Rhythm have a characteristic sound that different with general language that we used in daily life, so it is not always can well-imitated by foreign learners. Rhythm have aweak and strong beat in various pattern. The writers take a rhythm on monologue video as an article it is for to know and to give informations for the readers to understand more about rhythm in phonology, so the writers have a lot of question about the rhythm is it such as, what is rhythm?, where is the rhythm can found?, why sometimes the rhythm of sound that produce by mouth have a similar sound? etc.

According to (Brown, 1977) on Discourse Analysis for Language book by Michael McCarthy, she found such recurring patterns in her recording of broadcast talk, actually it can be find in the same way but at a different times.

According to (Scallon, 1982) on Discourse Analysis for Language book by Michael McCarthy, he feel that in spoken interaction, the rhythm a speaker establishes and conforms to represents an underlying tempo (basically the pace or speed of speech, just like the relationship between rhythm and tempo in music), which governs interaction and which gives important clues to participants concerning things such as turn-taking. Other phonologists see a different organising function in rhythm, Taylor (1981) said, in the dividing of information into coherent chunks for the listener.

Monologue, is applied science that teaches about the role arts, and that is only need one person or a mute dialogue to perform sketch scene or in other word, performing the poem or rhyme. One of the famous advocates in monologue is Charlie Chaplin, he introduce a monologue in hollywood around 1964 and it was developed into a means of art and theatre, and it was become one of the learning theories from the works of theatre. To delivery the monologue that should expressing what is the feels of the person who role a monologue, that is why that person need a good rhythm to expressing the dialogue in poem by monologues.
One of the most popular monologue in Hollywood by Charlie Chaplin is The Great Dictator that was a monochrome movie at 15-10-1940, parody that Chaplin used is not a crude or hilarious parody, but the parody has its own class which elegant. That movie release when world war two Charlie Chaplin as Adolf Hitler walk the way to the top of his glory, and they have successfully parodied that incident. The writers will analyze The Great Dictator movie video by Charlie Chaplin to know about the rhythm on the monologue that Charlie Chaplin speak is it strong or weak, and is that easy to imitated by the general learners and foreign learners.

METHOD

The aim of the research method of this article is to get the point target of analyzing the rhythm by monologue video. The participant that the writers used is Charlie Chaplin as the actor who role Adolf Hitler on ‘The Great Dictator’ movie. The method that the writers used is qualitative method, (Bogdan, 1982) state that qualitative research is descriptive which the data is collected in the form of words or pictures rather than numbers. The data that writers got it is from the video cut by Charlie Chaplin movie, the writers analyze it by herself by watching the video to heard what are Chaplin talk about with the way Chaplin talk and the expression that Chaplin used, and make the transcript from the dialogue that Charlie Chaplin has and the writers will analyzing between theory of rhythm and the transcript of monologue video to get the result of this research is that have a strong beat or weak beat, and is that easy to imitated by the writers.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

Results

The writers watch a video of Charlie Chaplin and listen carefully to make a transcript of the dialogue in that movie, the writers make a transcript from the best scene of Charlie Chaplin Speech in duration 1:59:10 until 2:02:42 on The Great Dictator movie video. The transcript will be show in the analysis in the discussion down below.

Discussion

The writers analyze a strong and a weak beat of the transcript that writers have, after that the writers as a foreign learner will try to imitated the sound of Charlie Chaplin in the video. The way to know a strong beat and a weak beat and the transcript dialogue will be list talk by talk:

1. I’m sorry, but I don’t want to be an emperor, That not my business

2. I don’t want to rule or conquer anyone, I should like to help everyone if possible

3. Jew, gentile black men white. We all want to help one another. Human beings are like that

4. We want to live by each other’s happiness not by each other misery

5. We don’t want to hate and despise one another

6. The world has room for everyone and the earth is rich. I can provide for everyone

7. The way of life can be free and beautiful, but we have lost the way
8. Greed has poisoned men’s souls, has barricaded the world with hate

9. Has goose stepped us into misery and bloodshed. We have developed speed,

10. But we have shut ourselves in

11. Machinery that gives abundance has left us in want

12. Our knowledge has made us cynical, our cleverness, hard and unkind. We think too much and feel too little

13. More than machinery we need humanity. More than cleverness we need kindness and gentleness

14. Without these qualities, life will be violent and all will be lost

15. The aeroplane and the radio have brought us closer together

16. The very nature of these inventions cries out for the goodness in men

17. Cries out for universal brotherhood for the unity of us all.

18. Even now my voice is reaching millions throughout the world

19. Millions of despairing men, woman, and little children

20. Victims of a system that makes men torture and imprison innocent people

21. For those who can hear me I say, do not despair. The misery that is now upon us is but the passing of greed

22. The bitterness of men who fear the way of human progress

23. The hate of men will pass and dictators die and the power they took from the people

24. Will return to the people and so long as men die, liberty will never perish

25. Soldiers! Don’t give yourselves to brutes, men who desire you, enslave you, who regiment your lives

26. Tell you what to do, what to think and what to feel

27. Who drill you, diet you, treat you like cattle, use you as cannon fodder

28. Don’t give yourselves to these unnatural men, machine men with machine minds and machine hearts

29. You are not machines! You are not cattle! You are men! You have the love of humanity in your hearts!

30. You don’t hate! Only the unloved hate the unloved and the unnatural

31. Soldiers! Don’t fight for slavery! Fight for liberty!

32. In the 17th Chapter of St Luke it is written: “The kingdom of god within man”

33. Not one man or group of men, but in all men! In you

34. You the people, have the power, the power to create machines, the power to create happiness

35. You the people, have the power to make this life free and beautiful to make this life a wonderful adventure

36. Then in the name of democracy, let us use that power, let us all unite.

37. A decent world that will give men a chance to work, that will give youth a future and old age a security

38. By the promise of these things, brutes have risen to power

39. But they lie! They do not fulfil that promise. They never will!

40. Dictators free themselves but they enslave the people!

41. Now let us fight to fulfill that promise. Let us fight to free the world

42. To do away with national barries, to do away with greed

43. With hate and intolerance let us fight for a world of reason
44. A world where science and progress will lead to all men’s happiness
/ _ _ _ _ / _ _ / _ _ / / / /

45. Soldiers! In the name of democracy, let us all unite!

That is the result of analyze of strong and weak beat of rhythm the writers try to imitated Charliie Chaplin sound and some of them easy to imitated but some of them is hard to imitated too such as
/ / / _ _ / _ / / _ _ / / / /
Not one man or group of men, but in all men! In you
/ / / _ / _ _ / / / / / _ _
men who desire you, enslave you, who regiment

Most of them hard to imitated because of the tempo of the sound that have fast tempo and the characteristic of Chaplin sound.

CONCLUSION
The rhythm have a characteristic sound, the characteristic sound here means the sound of the speaker that is depend of dialect of the speaker too, the writers find a lot of strong beat of Charlie Chaplin at the end of speech monologue with the good expression that make the writers easy to analyze the beat. The imitation of the Chaplin sound is not all easy because of the tempo of his speech is too fast so the writers should heard well to imitated well. The writers hope that the reader will interested by reading this article to know and to got more information of the rhythm and the art monologue to give them motivated to have a characteristic sound by learning a rhythm English.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS
First at all, the writers would say thank to Allah SWT who gave us a chance to write this article with the tittle we interested in, the writers would say thank you too to our beloved family who always support, give a motivation, and share another knowledge about life to open our mind to finish this article. We would also thankful to our lecturer Mr. Dasep Suprijadi., M.Pd. who guide us to write this article. The writers hopes this article could gave an information and gave more knowledge for the readers.

REFERENCES
Chaplin, C. (Director). (1940). The Great Dictator [Motion Picture].